Biography

Teeroy Tyobee is a Nigerian singer, songwriter and performer from the Tiv Nation of Benue State. His music brings together Afrobeat rhythms, soulful melodies and storytelling, with themes that move through hope, identity, love, resilience and everyday Nigerian life.

His work places Tiv and Middle Belt heritage inside a contemporary Afro-fusion sound. Releasing independently through Royz Houz, he has built a catalogue that includes the six-track project IEMBER (JOY), whose title draws on the Tiv word for joy.

Career

Tiv Nation, Benue State

Public profiles place his upbringing and cultural grounding in Benue State, in Nigeria’s Middle Belt. The Tiv language and its storytelling traditions recur across the catalogue.

First official single — date disputed NEEDS REVIEW

Two records conflict. A 2026 interview describes "Different People" (2020) as his first official single and first international collaboration, while The Nation reported "Are You There? (Dear Heavenly Father)" as the 2019 debut. Both are presented together rather than resolved.

2022 — 2024

Singles build an independent catalogue

A run of singles — including "We Are" (2022), "Good Old Days" and "Heaven" (2023), then "One Call", "Better Man" and "One for the Road" (2024) — established the sound released independently through Royz Houz.

2025

"Wise Up" and the socially conscious turn

The Nation covered "Wise Up" in May 2025, framing it around mental emancipation and the rejection of limiting narratives.

"Mama Africa" leads the EP

Released as the lead single ahead of the debut EP, "Mama Africa" centres African heritage, strength and resilience. NTA announced it as the first taste of the project.

IEMBER (JOY) — six tracks

The six-track EP, released through Royz Houz, takes its title from the Tiv word for joy and moves from struggle toward finding happiness. The Guardian Nigeria covered its release in October 2026.
